

COUNCIL WILL
IGNORE SHEETSCommunications From Him Will Be Returned Unanswered.MUST FIGHT FOR HIS SALARY
AUDITOR REISER WILL REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE VOUCHER.

From all outward appearances those who are opposed to Chief of Police George A. Sheets have become reconciled to the fact that he is really the head of the police department; that little can be gained by attempting to remove him from office, and that the only thing to do is to make the best of a bad bargain. But as "still waters run deep," the opposition may be casting around for some legal way to de-capitate the rear chief.

While there are a number of attorneys who freely express the opinion that Chief Sheets was not legally elected, as far as known none of them has come forward with a solution. Whether they will in the future, remains to be seen.

Council to Ignore the Chief.

The council cannot take the initiative in any such proceedings. Individual members of that body will probably not invoke the aid of the law, because it would prove personally an expensive experiment. The city officials cannot act, as the law department avers that the appointment is legal. Therefore, unless some citizen takes it upon himself to fight the appointment, the chances are remote that any step will be taken in that direction.

Two things are certain, however. One is that the council will utterly ignore Chief Sheets as the head of the police department as long as this administration is in power. And the other is that City Auditor Reiser will not take cognizance of the chief's voucher for his salary unless management do so by the courts, or he receives such instructions from the council.

The auditor takes the stand, under section 562, that the salary of the chief is a liability of the city, and, as such, he must recognize it. He will recognize the voucher for the chief, but not until then.

President Ottrell of the council said last evening that that body would most certainly utter no word of censure, and return to him any communications which he might see proper to transmit to them. With such treatment awaiting any communication, there is every reason to expect that Chief Sheets will not hold many autographic conversations with that body.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

WAS FALSE ALARM.—An unknown telephone in an alarm to the fire department last night, saying that there was smoke issuing from the Lake House. The department made a splendid run, only to find that it was a false alarm, and that the smoke coming from a restaurant near by.

APPOINTMENT ABOUT DEE.—When in the next few days Governor Wells will name the fourth judicial district, the time in which he has to make the appointment, in conformity with the law, is almost expired. It was reported yesterday that the governor had made a selection, but this his excellency pointedly denied last evening.

TROOPS TO DRILL.—The Twelfth infantry at Fort Douglas will go on a drill march on Saturday morning. The march will start at 7 o'clock and the march will commence in heavy marching order. The troops will be in the city and will march in line and then return to the post. The officer in command has magnanimously weekly drills in this kind of order to accustom the soldiers to marching, in case they should be called out at any time and be required to march a long trip.

BROUGHT WILKINSON BACK.—Detective George Chase returned yesterday from Omaha, where he went to bring back Jack Wilkinson, who was captured last week by the Omaha police and who is wanted here. Wilkinson is a man with a record, having been in trouble here before and even now he is on bonds on the charge of grand larceny. It is claimed that he robbed a hearing house on West Temple street, of $15 in cash about two months ago and he was bound over to the district court on a charge of $250 bonds. His brother, James Wilkinson, who is wanted here for robbing the postoffice in South street, was arrested at the same time and will be brought back by Postoffice Inspector Sharp, who is now in Omaha.

MURDER IS ARRESTED.—Lawrence Morris, who is wanted in this city for passing fraudulent checks, was arrested yesterday in Chicago, and a description sent out from this city. Steps are being taken to have requisition papers issued so that he may be brought back for trial. It is alleged by the police that some weeks ago Morris passed several worthless checks upon the bank of J. H. Hirschman, the shoe dealer. Besides passing bad checks, Morris is charged with the name of Vincent and Herring, contractors of Annapolis, Md., to some checks and he will probably be prosecuted on this charge also. An officer will have in the morning for duty to bring Morris back for trial.

Aged Man Leaves County Infirmary and Nearly Perishes.

Three days of experience, an aged Frenchman left the county infirmary Tuesday evening and was found yesterday afternoon almost dead, lying beside the railroad tracks on Fourteenth South street.

The Frenchman, whose name could not be learned, was sent to the infirmary a few days ago suffering from consumption, and it was thought he was threatened with pneumonia. After remaining at the place three days the old man packed up his clothing and told the steward that he knew he was going to die and he wanted to go to his folk, whom he claimed lived in the southern part of the state.

The steward remonstrated with him, but the old man insisted and set out on foot, walking toward Murray. Yesterday afternoon he was found lying near the railroad tracks almost dead from cold and exposure. The infirmary authorities were notified and took him back to the institution.
